

MARK OF DARAX-US

BARON OF DARAX-US

Darax-us is a powerful demon lord who controls three layers of the Abyss known as the Twisting Nether. He relies on his barons to enforce his will both in his abyssal realms and beyond it. These barons are unique to the prince of the Twisting Nether, and are granted unusual powers for their loyalty.

Powered by Nether. Although not particularly powerful for demons, the barons of Darax-us are able to siphon energy from their domain regardless of where they are. With this siphon they can launch coils of demonic magic. But when the siphon is severed, typically when a baron is slain, the energy is released causing a destructive explosion of abyssal flame.

Demonic Royalty. Unlike other demons, barons can evolve as their competence in serving Darax-us grows. Eventually they can reach the rank of Guard, followed by Fel Knight, and the highest rank, Void Lord. Each time they are promoted their siphon to the nether is widened and they become more powerful.
